

Let's Practice!

Is it a reason or a result?

Instructions: Read the clues. Match the sentences on Column A to the sentences on Column B.

COLUMN A

1. I think I may head home myself.
2. I suggest now you work the room.
3. I would imagine she is tired.
4. I'm going to have a drink.
5. She'd better get used to it.

COLUMN B

- a. Having said that,
- b. Seeing that she had a very big day,
- c. Considering that this book is going to become a monster,
- d. Being a little tired,
- e. Having finished our speeches and introductions and considering that it's getting a little late in the evening,

Let's Practice!

What were they all doing?

Instructions: Read and write the correct words from the box to complete sentences.

Word Bank

station / moping / doing / going home / to finish telling / excursion tomorrow / off having

1. You are always _____ that.
2. I think she is _____ a heart attack somewhere.
3. Marisa's leaving for the _____ in about a minute.
4. She is _____.
5. She is going on some kind of _____.
6. This guy is sitting all by himself in a bar _____, so the barman refuses to serve him another drink.
7. Are you going _____ the rest of that horrible joke?